Thank You to all of Lovejoy's new parents that came to our first PTG meeting of the new school year. We love having new parents get involved with our school and the PTG.

- Fundraisers: St. Louis Cardinal Calendars, TJ's Pizza, Target Red Card, Schnuck's Escript, Shop-a-Roo (referral code is pamp7750)
- Spirit Wear: We are looking into getting a new design this year, will post more about what our options are a little later on
- Box Tops: Jenny Fox is handling box tops & labels for education, she will keep the school/parents up to date on how much money we are raising; the grade (two classes per grade) with the most box tops collected wins a pizza party in May
- Book Fair: Our first book fair starts on 9/24/15 runs through 10/01/15; Kara Marfell heads up our school's book fairs; we have a google sign up sheet posted on our school's facebook page so parents can sign up to volunteer to work
- Grandparents Breakfast: Is on 9/25/15 from 7:15 - 8:00 am
- Mini Art: We are needing volunteers to help work/teach mini art to our students; get with your child/children's teacher to see when to have mini art for their class
- Books for Christmas: PTG is going to supply the books this year through Scholastic; every child gets a new book for their reading level around the holiday in December
- Field Trips: Paid unpaid balance, $1 per bus per student, $2 for two buses, a student will pay no more than $5 for a field trip

- AR Prizes: We have chosen some new prizes for the AR points this year
- Scholastic Book Club for Teachers: Teachers have asked if the PTG will go in half on the purchase price for their book club for their classes; PTG agreed to do so
- Sign up List: At our first meeting we passed around a new sign up list for all of our different activities that we do through out the school year; we are needing and looking for volunteers to help work these activities; some parents that attended our first meeting have already signed up for some of these activities
- Next PTG Meeting: Our next PTG meeting will be on November 5th @ 6:30 pm; we will be discussing dinners and fundraisers
